TYPE OF PROPERTY

We offer for sale this 4 bedroom semi detached cottage which has views of Mormond Hill and the surrounding countryside on a clear day.

The property is entered by a hardwood external door into front hallway which is fitted with a carpet and a cupboard at height contains the meter box.

The front facing lounge is accessed by Georgian style part glazed door and is also fitted with a carpet. There is a feature fireplace which can be used as a coal or log burner and has a tiled hearth and inset. There are two storage period cupboards at base and eye level with the upper one containing the hot water tank and in addition there is an understairs cupboard.

The rear hallway has coat hooks and gives access to the kitchen, bathroom , bedroom 1 and to the rear door which opens to the garden.

The kitchen is fitted with wall and base units with a contrasting worktop into which is incorporated a stainless steel circular sink. Windows overlook the garden and the walls behind the worktops are partially tiled. There is an integrated oven with hob and chimney extractor fan above. There is a washing machine and fridge freezer. The flooring is laminate.

The bathroom is fitted with a three piece suite comprising bath with shower above, pedestal whb and toilet. There is wood laminate flooring, a heated towel rail and a window to the rear.

The rear bedroom which is currently used as a study room situated across the hall from the kitchen could also be used as a dining room.

The second bedroom is accessed from the front hallway and is front facing. There is a shelved recess area.

The two bedroom which are located on the first floor are both front facing which allows them to benefit from views of the open countryside.
