Description

For sale as a 'DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITY' is the former Forbes Arms Hotel. The property is located just off the Square in the coastal village of Rosehearty. The property is in poor condition throughout, but occupies a generous sized site with a lot of potential for a purchaser. The property has a range of double and single glazing and has oil central heating to individual radiators throughout.

Within the village of Rosehearty there are hotels, local convenience stores, post office, butchers, library and a modern, up-to-the minute primary school. There are also bus services available to and from Fraserburgh.

Within the hotel itself are 9 guest bedrooms, all of which are spread over the first/second floor. To the ground floor there is the main public bar, with doors through to a lounge area with bar, further door opening into the reception area with double doors leading to the hall. The hall has two main bars and toilets to the rear. The hall area has a flat roof which is in need of repair. To the rear of the premises is the kitchen/store and a door leads out to the rear courtyard.

Viewings are needed, to appreciate the size and potential that this property has.
