Description

Development of eight high quality homes on two sites – Loch View and Kingswells View

The small town of Westhill is the perfect base if you're looking to live close by the bustling city of Aberdeen, yet within a stone's throw of the magical Scottish countryside.

Situated just 8 miles from the Granite City, Westhill benefits from a variety of shops, restaurants and hotels, plus offers easy access into Aberdeen – just half an hour's drive. Schools are no problem either as there are three local primary schools in the town, a highly rated secondary school, plus selection of private schools in the nearby city.

The leisure opportunities locally are almost endless. The 18 hole Westhill Golf Course, with stunning views out towards Deeside, is literally on your doorstep and caters well for both adults and youngsters. Playing fields, a swimming pool, tennis courts and bowling are all available locally and heading west you are quickly into the magnificent Deeside countryside, where opportunities abound for fishing, walking, climbing and cycling, and in just 90 minutes you're in the ski resort of Glenshee

For those fascinated by history there's plenty to see. Aberdeenshire boasts more than 300 castles, stately homes and ruins, plus as you'd expect from an area which has made its fortune from the sea, the region is rich in maritime history. You're just 20 minutes away from the spectacular Drum Castle and the start of the historic Victorian Heritage Trail, so there's definitely plenty to see and plenty to do.

The Developments

Loch View

This attractive site includes five high quality homes, which are sited in extensive grounds and are accessed directly from the quiet cul-de-sac of Loch View on the north side of Westhill.

All five houses benefit from an elevated position which offers stunning views over Westhill Golf Court, the hills and Loch Skene to the rear, and to the front over Westhill. An area of open gorseland lies to the front of the properties on the opposite side of the road and the centre of Westhill is just a 20 minute walk away or a few minutes in the car.

Kingswells View

The second site features three high quality, five bedroom homes, located in good sized gardens on the quiet residential road of Kingswells View.

The site is on a gentle incline and benefits from views both east towards Aberdeen and west over the hills. The second hole of the golf course lies to the rear of the three properties and an established conifer belt also provides shelter. Despite the quiet location, the centre of Westhill is just 12 minutes walk away.
