Description

We are delighted to offer for sale this traditional two public/four bedroomed self contained double upper flat situated in the popular village of Laurencekirk, within walking distance of the railway station, secondary school and shops. The property benefits from gas central heating, partial double glazing and some lovely period features including cornicing and skirtings and is to be sold with all white goods and furniture. Entering from the street is the ground floor hallway with meter cupboard, large understair storage cupboard and staircase leading to the first floor. On the first floor there is an impressive lounge with double windows and cornicing, a versatile room currently used as a home office but suitable for use as a dining or family room and this leads to the light oak finish kitchen. There are two double bedrooms and bathroom with coloured suite and shower over bath. Stairs lead off the hallway to the upper floor where there is a large bright double bedroom, a further single bedroom with lovely views to the hills and a box room. This property also has the potential to offer a buy to let opportunity and viewing is highly recommended.

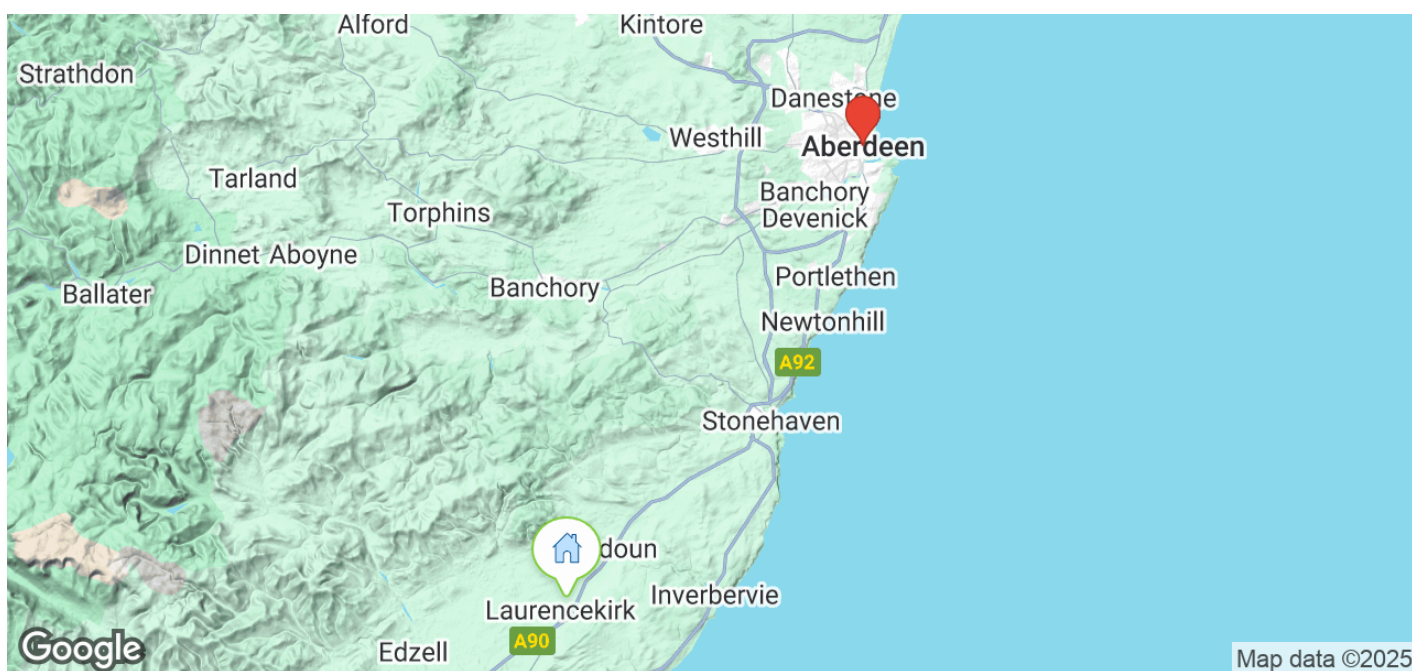

Laurencekirk is an old market town in the heart of the 'Howe o' the Mearns' valley lying approximately 13 miles south of Stonehaven and is well served by local shops, hotels and a healthcare centre.

Primary and secondary schooling are both available within the town. Laurencekirk's railway station allows for easy commuting to both the north and the south, while the A90 is only a short distance away bringing nearby towns and cities such as Montrose, Brechin and Dundee into easy reach.

Notes Gas central heating. Partial double glazing. EPC=F. All floor coverings, curtains, light fittings and white goods are included.

Directions

Enter Laurencekirk from the A90 at the first entrance from the north and continue into the village. Pass Laurencekirk church on the right and the door to number 15 is on the left next to the shop.
